Nestled in the heart of the New Jersey countryside, Northridge offers a unique dining experience that highlights the bounty of local agriculture.

Every dish is crafted from ingredients sourced directly from nearby farms, ensuring peak freshness and rich, authentic flavors. The menu features Chef Lance Knowling's rustic elegant approach to food. Each plate not only reflects the vibrant tastes of the season but also supports sustainable farming practices and strengthens our community.

With our commitment to local sourcing, Northridge provides a true taste of the region, celebrating the natural flavors that define the river valley.
